

“Will You Marry Me?”

TOM ALLEN

Proposal Writer & Consultant

Writing a grant proposal is much like getting married... it's all about recognizing, communicating and ultimately satisfying each other's needs and wants.

A Grant “WORKING” Seminar

April 12 - 14, 2012

Bella Luce Conference Center

707 North 5th St, Spearfish, SD

(Across from City Hall and above the Bum Steer)

Unlike virtually all grant writing seminars that tell you about funding sources, this "working" experience will have you learning AND creating an actual proposal during our engaging sessions. Bring your ideas or your work-in-progress for hands on instruction, technical guidance and critical recommendations to make your specific proposal all that it can be.

SEMINAR AGENDA

THURSDAY, APRIL 12

7:30am–9:30am The Networking "MATRIX":
Brunch and a networking experience bringing private, non-profit and public sector leaders together for an excellent meal and more!

7:30am–9:30am Registration: Will You Marry Me?
9:45am–Noon Session I: Will You Marry Me?
Introductions and Overview

Noon–1:00pm Lunch on Own

1:00pm–5:00pm Session II: WYMM Working Session
5:00pm–6:00pm Honeymoon Social Hour:
Entertainment Provided

FRIDAY, APRIL 13

8:00am–Noon Session III: WYMM Working Session
Noon–1:00pm Lunch on Own

1:00pm–5:00pm Session IV: WYMM Working Session
6:00pm– Bella Luce Conference Center open for participants discussion and working on their own. Refreshments provided.

SATURDAY, APRIL 14

8:00am–Noon Session V: WYMM Wrap Up Session
Evaluation & Graduation

Sponsored by: Intrepid Peregrine Enterprises, mitom, inc., Bella Luce and Native Educational Endeavors, a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation.

If you have accessibility concerns, please contact
Dr. John Glover at (605) 580-0941 or by e-mail at stormejohn@aol.com

TOM ALLEN

Proposal Writer & Consultant

Proposal writer and grant consultant extraordinaire, Tom has written proposals that have generated over $300 million for recipients, primarily in Indian Country and the northern plains. His clients and employers have included the National Indian School Board Association, American Indian College Fund, Oglala Sioux Tribe, Black Hills State University, Oglala Lakota College and many more. An accomplished author, poet and businessman, Tom holds degrees from Hofstra University and Oglala Lakota College. He and his wife and partner Michele own mitom, inc. in Spearfish, South Dakota.

Participant Name _____

Company/Organization representing _____

Title/Purpose of grant _____

Mission Statement or Purpose of the Company/Organization _____

Address _____

Phone _____

Email _____ Website _____

DEADLINE: APRIL 1, 2012

For Profit Grant Writers:$790.00
 General Government Rate:$690.00
 General Non-Profits:$590.00
 Indian Organization/Project:$490.00
 (Servicing one or more Federally Recognized Tribes.) Tax included

Make checks payable and mail to:
Intrepid Peregrine Enterprises
Attn: Dr. John Glover
Box 646
Spearfish, SD 57783

Check or Purchase Order (sorry, no credit card payments)

Fellowships or reduced fees are available for two participants from Indian Organizations or Projects who have low to non-existing budgets. Fellowship applicants will need to provide a letter of application and a description of their organization or projects financial need. Please contact Dr. John Glover at (605) 580-0941 or email stormejohn@aol.com for details.